Prices are F.O.B. mill, excluding freight

News that the CN Railroad would lay off 1600 workers due to declining freight volumes, along with a strike by 3200 workers, sparked the market this week. Lumber species that ship from Canada, SPF and dry DF, firmed on the news and prices rose. Green DF remained strong as prices continue to climb. Meanwhile, SYP prices waffled as inclement weather was forecast for Texas and the SE. OSB prices gained in some southern markets, while northern markets remained flat this week. Everyone has their beliefs and has chosen a side, so we ask you... Turkey or Ham?
