The overall market continued its slow grind upward. Quick shipping fiber carried large premiums over 6 week order files from the mill as overall pessimism about the market's direction becomes more and more evident. GRN and DRY DF continue to lead the charge to the upside with double digit increases. OSB and PLY seems to have cooled slightly with only slight increases this week and last. The Feds first (of many) 50bps increases on Wednesday has futures off and the DOW in a tailspin in today's trading.
