Markets remain on the same familiar footing across most regions and species this week with limited volume traded. Again, it was a mixed bag from north to south, east to west. GDF appears to be finding a more suitable trading level and may be firming up. SYP again saw some strength in the narrows but drifted lower on the wides, while SPF stayed somewhat flat. Dry DF dimension pushed up a notch again this week. Western fir plywood saw price appreciation, as did OSB - especially in western markets. Multiple upsets in NCAA football have some of the pundits scratching their heads. Enjoy your weekend and some late summer weather!
